wasn't just a pursuit of individual stardom; it was, and continues to be, a testament to the power of family supporting family.

From their early days in McComb, Mississippi, William and Sonja Norwood instilled a strong work ethic and a love for music in their children, Willie, Brandy, and Ray J. This isn't your typical cutthroat Hollywood landscape; it's a Norwood-style family venture, where success is often sweeter when shared.

The Early Seeds: From Gospel Choirs to Young Stars
