Dreaming of a Home Makeover?

How to Get on Property Brothers

Ever find yourself glued to the screen, watching Drew and Jonathan Scott work their magic on HGTV? You're not alone! The Property Brothers have captured our hearts (and our imaginations) with their ability to transform drab, dated houses into stunning dream homes. Maybe you've been nodding along, thinking, "That could be me*!*" or perhaps you're actively seeking a renovation rescue. Whatever your motivation, you're probably wondering: "How do I actually get on Property Brothers?"

The good news is, it's not an impossible dream! While they receive thousands of applications, with the right approach and a little bit of luck, you could be starring alongside Drew and Jonathan. This comprehensive guide will walk you through everything you need to know about applying for a Property Brothers makeover, from understanding their criteria to crafting a compelling application.

Understanding the Property Brothers' Show: What They're Looking For

Before you dive headfirst into the application process, it's crucial to understand what makes a project a good fit for the Property Brothers. They're not just looking for any old house; they're seeking specific stories and renovation challenges that make for great television.

The "Need" Factor: Why You Desperately Need a Renovation

At the heart of every Property Brothers episode is a compelling reason why the homeowners need a renovation. This isn't just about wanting a nicer kitchen; it's about a house that's actively hindering the family's lifestyle or causing significant stress. Think about these scenarios:

1. Growing Family, Shrinking Space: Your current home simply can't accommodate your expanding family, leading to cramped living quarters and a lack of privacy.

2. Life Transitions: A recent life event, like a job change, a new baby, or becoming empty nesters, has made your current home unsuitable for your evolving needs.
3. Disaster or Unexpected Issues: Your home has suffered significant damage from a natural disaster, or you've uncovered major structural problems that are beyond your budget or expertise to fix.
4. Investment Properties in Need of Revival: You've purchased a fixer-upper with the intention of flipping it or creating a rental income, but the renovation scope is far greater than anticipated.
5. Emotional Attachment with Practical Problems: You have a deep emotional connection to your home but it's plagued by functional issues or is just incredibly outdated, making it difficult to live in comfortably.

The more compelling and emotionally resonant your "need," the stronger your application will be. Producers want to see genuine hardship and a clear transformation that will significantly improve your lives.

The "Property" Factor: Finding the Right House

While Drew and Jonathan are known for their incredible transformations, they also need a solid foundation to work with. This means the house itself needs to have potential.

1. "Good Bones" with Visible Flaws: The Property Brothers often look for homes that have structural integrity but are visually unappealing or functionally outdated. They want to be able to see the potential beneath the surface.

2. Location, Location, Location: While not always the primary factor, desirable neighborhoods or areas with a strong sense of community can be a plus.
3. Budget Considerations: The show has a budget, and the purchase price of the home needs to be within a realistic range for a renovation of the scale they undertake.

The "People" Factor: Your Personality and Story

Drew and Jonathan are the faces of the show, but the homeowners are equally important. They're looking for individuals and families who are:

1. Relatable and Engaging: Viewers connect with authentic people who are going through a significant life change. Your personality and your family's dynamic should shine through.
2. Open to Change and Collaboration: You need to be willing to trust the Property Brothers' expertise and be open to their design vision, even if it's not exactly what you initially imagined.
3. Enthusiastic and Eager: Your excitement about the renovation process should be palpable.

How to Apply for Property Brothers: The Official Process

Getting your foot in the door involves a structured application process. HGTV has a dedicated casting website for their shows, and the Property Brothers are no exception.

Step 1: Find the Official Casting Call

The most direct way to apply is through the official HGTV casting website or the specific Property Brothers casting page. Keep an eye out for announcements, as casting calls can be periodic. You can usually find this by searching for "Property Brothers casting" or visiting the HGTV website and navigating to their "casting" or "apply" section.

Step 2: Fill Out the Application Thoroughly

The online application is your first chance to make an impression. Be prepared to provide detailed information about:

1. Your Personal Information: Names, ages, contact details of all individuals who would be featured on the show.
2. Your Current Home: Address, type of home, square footage, number of bedrooms/bathrooms, and a description of its current condition.
3. Your Renovation Needs: This is where you need to shine! Clearly articulate why you need a renovation, what your specific pain points are, and what you hope to achieve. Be specific and compelling.
4. Your Budget: Be upfront about your financial situation and your renovation budget. The show needs to know if you're a realistic candidate.
5. Your Story: This is your chance to tell your unique story. What makes you and your family interesting? What are your hobbies, passions, and what's your life like?
6. Photos and Videos: This is CRUCIAL. You'll likely be asked to submit photos of your current home (both interior and exterior) and a video introduction. This is your opportunity to showcase your personality and the "before" state of your home.

Step 3: Craft a Compelling Video Submission

A well-made video can significantly boost your chances. Here are some tips for creating a winning video:

1. Show, Don't Just Tell: Take viewers on a tour of your home, highlighting the problem areas and demonstrating the issues you're facing.
2. Be Authentic and Energetic: Let your personalities shine! Be enthusiastic, friendly, and genuine.
3. Clearly State Your "Why": Explain in your own words why you need a renovation and how it will change your lives.
4. Introduce Your Family: Let the audience get to know everyone who will be on the show.
5. Keep it Concise: While thoroughness is good, avoid making your video excessively long. Aim for a few minutes of engaging content.
6. Good Quality: Use decent lighting and clear audio. You don't need professional equipment, but a shaky, dark video can be a turn-off.

Step 4: Be Patient and Persistent

The casting process can be lengthy. You might hear back quickly, or it could take several months, or even longer, before you get a response. If you don't hear back immediately, don't be discouraged. Keep an eye on the casting website for any updates or new calls for applications.

Alternative Routes and Tips for Success

While the official application is the primary route, there are other things you can do to increase your visibility and chances.

Leveraging Social Media

The Property Brothers and their production company are active on social media. While they don't typically accept direct applications through these channels, building a public presence can help.

1. Share Your Renovation Journey (Even if it's just planning): Post about your home's challenges and your renovation dreams. Use relevant hashtags like #PropertyBrothers, #HGTV, #HomeRenovation, and #FixerUpper.
2. Engage with Their Content: Like, comment on, and share their posts. Show your genuine interest in their work.
3. Be Creative: Some applicants have created viral videos or unique social media campaigns to get noticed. While not a guarantee, creativity can sometimes pay off.

Networking and Referrals

Do you know anyone who has been on a home renovation show? Word-of-mouth referrals can sometimes be valuable. If you have a strong connection to someone in the production industry, a personal introduction might open doors.

Understanding the Casting Timeline

Casting calls are often tied to specific filming seasons. If you're eager to be on the show, be aware of when they typically scout for new projects. This information might be available on their casting website or through industry news.

What Happens After You Apply?

If your application catches the attention of the casting team, here's what you can generally expect:

Initial Screening and Interviews

You'll likely have phone or video interviews with casting producers. This is another opportunity to elaborate on your story, your needs, and your personality. They'll be assessing your suitability for television and the potential for a compelling renovation narrative.

Home Visits and Assessments

If you pass the initial interviews, the production team may arrange to visit your home. They'll want to see the property firsthand, assess its condition, and get a feel for the overall project. This is also where they'll evaluate the structural and design potential.

Budget Discussions and Property Purchase

If your project is seriously considered, there will be in-depth discussions about your budget and the potential purchase of a new property. The show typically provides a budget for both the purchase of the new home and the renovation. It's crucial to be transparent about your financial situation and expectations.

Contract and Filming Schedule

If you're selected, you'll sign a contract and work with the production team to establish a filming schedule. This can involve several weeks or months of filming, often requiring significant flexibility on your part.

Common Pitfalls to Avoid When Applying

To maximize your chances, be aware of these common mistakes:

1. Not Being Specific Enough: Vague applications about "wanting a nicer home" won't stand out. Clearly define your problems and your desired outcomes.
2. Exaggerating or Being Dishonest: Authenticity is key. Don't make up problems or misrepresent your situation.
3. Poor Quality Photos and Videos: A blurry photo or a shaky, inaudible video can immediately put off casting directors.
4. Not Being Realistic About Budget: The show has financial constraints. Be honest about what you can afford and what you expect the show to cover.
5. Lack of Personality: While the house is important, the people make the show. Let your unique personalities shine through!

The Property Brothers Experience:

What to Expect if You Get On

Being selected for Property Brothers is an incredible opportunity, but it's also a significant commitment. You'll be working closely with Drew, Jonathan, and their design and construction teams. Expect:

1. Fast-Paced Filming: The show is known for its rapid renovations, and the filming schedule reflects that.
2. Decision Making: While the brothers have a vision, you'll still have input and will need to make decisions about finishes, colors, and layouts.
3. Surprises: Jonathan is notorious for adding in unexpected features and surprises!
4. A Whole New Home: At the end of the process, you'll have a beautifully renovated home that's tailored to your needs and desires.

Getting on Property Brothers is a journey that requires preparation, a compelling story, and a little bit of luck. By understanding what they're looking for and following the application process diligently, you can significantly increase your chances of turning your renovation dreams into a reality on national television. So, start brainstorming your story, dusting off your camera, and get ready to apply!

Understanding the Property Brothers' Philosophy

At the heart of the Property Brothers' influence is their philosophy of storytelling layered with actionable transformation. They don't just show property makeovers—they craft narratives that connect emotionally with viewers, turning houses into homes and neighborhoods into communities. Their method hinges on three core elements: authentic storytelling, meticulous design planning, and sustainable community impact. By focusing on how spaces can evolve to meet real human needs, they offer more than aesthetics—they deliver purposeful change. This philosophy resonates deeply with audiences seeking not only beautiful homes but meaningful, lasting improvements.

Those who wish to engage with the Property Brothers' world benefit from recognizing this blend of vision and execution. It's not enough to admire their work; understanding the principles behind their transformations empowers individuals to replicate similar success in their own spaces or professional endeavors. The brothers consistently demonstrate how thoughtful planning, collaboration with experts, and respect for local context create impactful, long-term results.

Key Insights for Aspiring Followers

To truly “get on” with the Property Brothers, aspiring followers should first cultivate a mindset of curiosity and openness to change. Their content invites viewers to see potential where others see limitations—whether it’s a run-down garage, an underused backyard, or an aging family home. Developing this observational skill is crucial, as the brothers often highlight overlooked details that others miss. Equally important is learning to balance creativity with practicality: design ideas must be grounded in real-world constraints like budget, structural feasibility, and local regulations.

Another vital insight is the emphasis on community. The Property Brothers don't just renovate houses—they strengthen neighborhoods by fostering connections and enhancing shared spaces. Aspiring followers can apply this by considering how their own projects contribute to broader social and environmental well-being. Whether through sustainable materials, accessibility improvements, or inclusive design, integrating community values into every project deepens impact and aligns with the brothers' holistic approach.

Practical Applications and Real-World Benefits

The principles of the Property Brothers extend beyond television sets into everyday life. For homeowners, embracing their method means approaching renovations with clarity of purpose—defining goals before selecting materials or contractors. This clarity reduces wasted effort and ensures every decision serves a meaningful outcome. It also encourages collaboration with licensed professionals, from architects to contractors, ensuring quality and compliance.

For aspiring real estate professionals or designers, the brothers' emphasis on storytelling offers powerful lessons in client engagement. By helping people envision their future in a space, rather than focusing solely on technical specifications, professionals can build trust and inspire confidence. Moreover, the brothers' focus on sustainability—through energy-efficient upgrades, eco-friendly materials, and green landscaping—positions them at the forefront of responsible development, appealing to environmentally conscious clients.

Building Long-Term Value and Legacy

One of the most enduring benefits of aligning with the Property Brothers' philosophy is the creation of lasting value. Unlike fleeting trends, their transformations prioritize durability, functionality, and emotional resonance. By investing in quality, adapting to evolving needs, and preserving architectural character where appropriate, homeowners and builders alike lay the foundation for enduring satisfaction. This long-term perspective transforms individual projects into legacies—spaces that benefit generations and contribute positively to communities.

Looking ahead, the future outlook for aspiring Property Brothers followers is shaped by growing interest in smart, sustainable living and community-centered development. As digital platforms continue to amplify access to expert knowledge, more people can learn the brothers' methods through online courses, interactive content, and collaborative forums. This democratization of real estate transformation empowers individuals to lead change in their own environments, fostering innovation and resilience at both personal and neighborhood levels.

Ultimately, getting on the Property Brothers' path means embracing a mindset of vision, purpose, and connection. By internalizing their principles—observing potential, designing with care, and building community—anyone can transform spaces and lives, one project at a time. In a world where physical environments shape daily experiences, this approach offers not just beautiful homes, but meaningful, lasting impact.

Dreaming of a Renovation? How to Get on Property Brothers transformation, guided by the charming and capable Scott brothers, has captivated millions. Shows like Property Brothers, Buying and Selling, and Brother vs. Brother have not only entertained us with dramatic renovations and emotional reveals but also ignited dreams of our own home makeovers. But for many, the burning question remains: how can I get on Property Brothers?

The allure of a complete home

While it might seem like a distant fantasy, securing a spot on Drew and Jonathan Scott's popular HGTV shows is a tangible goal for homeowners willing to open their doors to television crews and undergo a significant home renovation. This article will delve deep into the application process, the eligibility requirements, and what it takes to increase your chances of becoming a "Property Brother" success story. We'll explore the nuances of what the production team looks for, the benefits of participating, and the realistic expectations you should have.

Understanding the Property Brothers Franchise

Before diving into the application process, it's crucial to understand the different shows within the Property Brothers universe. While the core concept of buying, renovating, and selling or staying is consistent, each program has its unique focus:

1. Property Brothers: Forever Home:

This is perhaps the most sought-after show for homeowners looking to renovate their existing residence.

The focus is on transforming a house into their "forever home," addressing functional and aesthetic issues.

- 2. Buying and Selling: This show typically involves homeowners who need to sell their current property and buy a new one. Drew helps find the perfect new home, while Jonathan tackles the renovation of their existing house to maximize its selling price.
- 3. Brother vs. Brother: A competitive series where Drew and Jonathan renovate homes against each other, often with a specific theme or challenge. While homeowners are involved, the primary focus is on the brothers' rivalry.
- 4. Property Brothers: Homebuyer: A newer addition, this show centers on Drew helping families find their dream home, followed by a renovation by Jonathan.

Knowing which show aligns best with your current home situation will help you tailor your application.

The All-Important Application: Your First Step

The gateway to appearing on any Property Brothers show is the application. These are typically found on the official HGTV website or through the production company's casting calls. The process is competitive, so a thorough and compelling application is paramount.

Where to Find the Application

Keep a close eye on the official HGTV website for casting calls. They will have dedicated sections for various shows, including the Property Brothers series. Production companies also frequently use social media platforms to announce casting opportunities. Following the official Property Brothers social media accounts (Drew Scott, Jonathan Scott, HGTV) is a wise move.

What to Include in Your Application

Your application is your chance to shine. Be prepared to provide a wealth of information. Common elements include:

- 1. Personal Information: Names, ages, contact details, and any children or other family members who would be featured.
- 2. Your Home Story: This is where you sell them on your unique situation. Why do you need a renovation? What are the biggest challenges with your current home? What are your renovation goals? Be honest, emotional, and specific.

- 3. Photos and Videos: High-quality photographs of your current home, both inside and out, are essential. A short video showcasing your home's flaws and your personality is also highly recommended. This is your chance to be engaging and show your enthusiasm.
- 4. Budget and Timeline: While the show provides a renovation budget, you'll likely need to discuss your financial situation and how much you're willing to invest. Be realistic about your timeline and availability for filming.
- 5. Location: Property Brothers primarily films in specific regions. While they sometimes travel, being in or near a designated filming location significantly increases your chances. Check the casting call for geographical requirements.

Crafting a Compelling Narrative

The production team isn't just looking for a fixer-upper; they're looking for a compelling human interest story.

Consider these tips:

- 1. Highlight the "Why": What are the emotional drivers behind your need for a renovation? Is it a growing family, a desire to age in place, or a long-held dream that's finally within reach?
- 2. Embrace Vulnerability: Don't be afraid to show the challenges and frustrations of your current living situation. The more relatable you are, the better.

- 3. Show Your Personality: Are you funny, passionate, or perhaps a little overwhelmed? Let your true self shine through in your application materials. The Scott brothers are known for their rapport with homeowners, and they want to work with people they connect with.
- 4. Be Specific About Your Goals: Instead of saying "we want a new kitchen," explain why you need a new kitchen. "We're a family of five, and our current cramped kitchen makes meal prep a daily battle. We dream of a spacious, functional kitchen where we can gather as a family and entertain friends."

Eligibility Requirements: Are You

a Good Fit?

Beyond simply wanting a renovation, there are several key eligibility requirements that production teams consider:

Homeownership and Property Type

- 1. Must be a Homeowner: This is fundamental. You need to own the property you wish to have renovated.
- 2. Property Condition: The home should have significant renovation potential. A house that's already in perfect condition is unlikely to be selected. They are looking for properties with problems that Jonathan can work his magic on.
- 3. Suitable for the Show's Format: Generally, they look for single-family homes. While townhouses or condos might be considered in some cases, the classic Property Brothers format often focuses on detached houses.

Financial Commitment and Budget

This is a crucial aspect that often trips up aspiring applicants. It's essential to understand how the show's finances work:

- 1. Renovation Budget: While HGTV and the production company contribute to the renovation costs, homeowners are expected to have their own financial contribution. This can vary significantly depending on the scope of the project and the specific show. You'll need to discuss this openly during the casting process.
- 2. Home Purchase Budget (for Buying and Selling): If you're applying for "Buying and Selling," you'll need to demonstrate you have a budget for purchasing a new home.

- 3. Commitment to the Project: Be prepared for a significant investment of your time and energy. Filming can be disruptive, and you'll need to be flexible and cooperative.

Availability for Filming

The production schedule can be demanding. You and your family will need to be available for:

- 1. Initial Consultations and Planning: Meetings with Drew and Jonathan to discuss your needs and vision.
- 2. Filming Days: This is the most intensive part, where you'll be interviewed, witness the demolition, and experience the reveal. Be prepared for multiple filming days over several weeks or months.

- 3. Temporary Relocation (Potentially):
Depending on the renovation's scope and the filming schedule, you might need to temporarily move out of your home.

Geographical Location

As mentioned earlier, location is a significant factor. Production often focuses on areas with a concentration of potential projects. While not always explicitly stated, being in or near major metropolitan areas where filming is common can increase your odds. Check the casting calls for specific locations they are currently casting in.

Maximizing Your Chances of Being Selected

Simply filling out the application isn't always enough. To truly stand out, consider these strategic approaches:

Be Realistic About Your Expectations

While the show presents a fairytale ending, remember that it's television. The process involves extensive planning, potential challenges, and compromises. Be prepared for the reality of a renovation, even with the guidance of the Scott brothers.

Focus on the "Before" and "After" Potential

Production teams are looking for dramatic transformations. Highlight the aspects of your home that have the most potential for a "wow" factor. What are the biggest eyesores? What features are desperately lacking?

What are your wildest renovation dreams that could be realized?

Show Your Enthusiasm and Willingness to Collaborate

The Scott brothers work best with homeowners who are engaged, positive, and open to their design ideas. Demonstrate that you're a team player and excited about the prospect of working with them.

Leverage Social Media (Carefully)

While not a primary application channel, building a social media presence showcasing your home's current state and your renovation aspirations can sometimes catch the eye of casting directors. Use relevant hashtags like #PropertyBrothers,

#HGTV, #HomeRenovation, and #DreamHome. However, ensure your content is genuine and not overly staged.

Persistence is Key

The Property Brothers casting process is highly competitive. Many homeowners apply multiple times before being selected. Don't get discouraged if your first attempt isn't successful. Re-evaluate your application, gather more compelling photos or videos, and try again.

The Benefits of Being on Property Brothers

While the application and renovation process can be demanding, the rewards of appearing on a popular HGTV show are substantial:

- 1. A Professionally Designed and Renovated Home: The most obvious benefit is a stunning transformation of your living space, designed by top professionals.
- 2. Expert Guidance: You gain access to the design expertise of Drew and the construction prowess of Jonathan.
- 3. Increased Home Value: A well-executed renovation by the Property Brothers can significantly increase your home's market value.
- 4. Television Exposure: For some, the prospect of appearing on national television is a dream in itself.
- 5. A Unique and Memorable Experience: The entire process, from application to reveal, is an unforgettable journey.

Conclusion: Your Renovation Dream Might Be Within Reach

Getting on Property Brothers requires a combination of a compelling story, a suitable home, financial readiness, and a good dose of persistence. While the selection process is undoubtedly competitive, understanding the requirements and tailoring your application effectively can significantly boost your chances. So, if you're ready to embark on a transformative home renovation journey and have always dreamt of working with Drew and Jonathan, start by polishing your application and showcasing the true potential of your home. Your "forever home" might just be a TV screen away.

2	What are the key requirements to get selected for a Property Brothers renovation?	Key requirements typically include having a significant renovation project in mind, a budget that aligns with their show's parameters (you'll likely need to contribute financially), a compelling reason for the renovation (e.g., growing family, need for a specific space), and being able to be filmed extensively during the process.
3	Is there a specific geographic area Property Brothers films in?	Property Brothers often films in specific cities or regions. While they have filmed in various locations across North America, checking their current casting calls or website will reveal which areas they are actively seeking homeowners in for upcoming seasons.

While the show provides a budget for the renovation and the Brothers' expertise, homeowners are generally expected to contribute financially to the project. This could be a unique challenge with your current home, a strong desire to create a dream space for a specific reason (like accommodating a family member with special needs), and a clear vision for what you want.
