The human body, in its many manifestations – vulnerable, powerful, sexualized, and transformed – is a recurring motif. Joannou's collection features artists who push the boundaries of anatomical representation and explore the psychological and physiological aspects of the corporeal. From the visceral paintings of Francis Bacon to the digitally manipulated figures of Steven Klein, the body serves as a site of both fascination and critique. This emphasis on the body highlights a commitment to art that is raw, immediate, and deeply human, a hallmark of the Dakis Joannou Collection.
