The matriarch, Mama (Caroline Logan), is a strong-willed teacher who instills in her children the importance of education, self-respect, and critical thinking. Papa (David Logan) is a hardworking man who balances stoicism with a fierce protective instinct for his family. Their children – Stacey, Cassie, Christopher-John, and Little Man – each possess distinct personalities, but they are united by their parents' unwavering love and guidance.

Cassie Logan: A Young Voice Finding Her Truth

The narrative is primarily filtered through the experiences and evolving understanding of ten-year-old Cassie. Her journey from naive innocence to a more profound awareness of the pervasive racism she faces is a central arc of the novel. Cassie's sharp observations and her initial struggles with the unfairness of the world – particularly the segregationist policies that impact her daily life – make her a relatable and compelling protagonist. Her confrontations with racial prejudice, from the humiliation of being denied service at the mercantile to witnessing the devastating consequences of land theft, fuel her growth and courage.
