Consulting with a legal or financial advisor is highly recommended to determine the best structure for your specific needs and to understand the Virginia business entity registration process.

Step 2: Making it Official - Legal and Administrative Steps

Once your plan is solid, it's time to turn your idea into a legally recognized entity. This involves navigating various registrations and obtaining the necessary licenses and permits. This is where you start to see your new business in Virginia take shape.

Registering Your Business Name

If you're operating under a name different from your own legal name (for sole proprietorships and partnerships) or your official business entity name, you'll need to register a "Doing Business As" (DBA) or a trade name. For LLCs and corporations, your chosen name will be registered when you file your formation documents with the State Corporation Commission (SCC).

Obtaining an Employer Identification Number (EIN)

An EIN, also known as a Federal Tax Identification Number, is like a Social Security number for your business. You'll need one if you plan to hire employees, operate as a corporation or partnership, or file certain tax returns. You can apply for an EIN for free through the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) website.

State and Local Licenses and Permits

The Virginia Department of Small Business and Supplier Diversity (VSBSD) and your local government websites are excellent resources for identifying the specific licenses and permits required for your Virginia small business startup.

Registering with the Virginia Department of Taxation

The U.S. Small Business Administration partners with lenders to offer loans with favorable terms to small businesses. Researching small business loans in Virginia is a smart move.

Angel Investors and Venture Capital

As your business gains momentum, you'll need to establish your operational infrastructure and, potentially, build a team. This is about creating the engine that will drive your Virginia business growth.
