(Image: a photo of the author holding a worn sheet music book, with a warm, autumnal setting in the background.) My connection with this song began rather unexpectedly. My grandmother, a woman whose life was a tapestry woven with threads of resilience and joy, loved this song. Every year, on her birthday, she'd play it on her old, battered piano, the melody echoing through our living room. It wasn't just the music; it was the feeling. The gentle, almost melancholic acceptance that wrapped around you and whispered, "This year, it was good." This year, I find myself drawn back to this melody. Life has been a whirlwind of exciting endeavors and heart-wrenching challenges.
