Lyrical Tapestry: Decoding the Words of "Think of Me"

The lyrics for "Think of Me" were penned by Charles Hart, and together with Lloyd Webber's music, they create a profound emotional resonance. The song is a plea from Christine to a beloved, likely her deceased father, as well as to a broader audience, asking to be remembered and appreciated. The central theme revolves around the ephemeral nature of fame and the desire for lasting remembrance. Phrases like "I think of you and you will never know how much I love you" and "And if I shouldn't be alive, when the final scene is over, I pray you won't forget me, the girl who sang 'Think of Me'" encapsulate this longing for enduring impact. The lyrics skillfully weave together personal sentiment with public performance, revealing Christine's deep-seated insecurities and her fierce determination to leave her mark on the world. The ambiguity of the addressed "you" also adds a layer of interpretative depth, allowing the audience to project their own experiences of love and loss onto the song.

At its core, "Think of Me" is a meditation on memory and legacy. Christine is acutely aware of the fleeting nature of artistic success and the potential for her talents to be forgotten. Her plea to be remembered is not merely vanity; it stems from a deep-seated need for her existence and her art to have meaning. This resonates with audiences who grapple with similar anxieties about their own impact and the lasting impression they will leave behind.

Love and Sacrifice

The lyrics also hint at themes of love and sacrifice. Christine's willingness to dedicate her life to her art, potentially at the expense of personal relationships, is a recurring motif in the musical.
