It was her journey to Australia with her husband, Captain Archibald Chisholm, in 1838 that truly ignited her lifelong mission. Her ability to articulate the needs of the marginalized resonated with a growing sense of social responsibility in both Britain and Australia.

Her return to England in the 1840s and 1850s was not an end to her work, but a shift in focus. She continued to advocate for better immigration practices, addressing Parliament and writing prolifically.
